

I don't like my government interfering with competition in the marketplace except for critical emergency situations. Do not "unlevel the field" in the market competition between Satellite Radio and the NAB stations with regard to traffic and weather information. As I travel I need this type of information from my satellite car radio. Thank you for protecting my consumer interests.